

★★★100th Anniversary of the Woman's International League for Peace and Freedom ★★★

Break Every Chain: Unshackling Ourselves from War and Prison

Kathy Kelly

Saturday, October 3 - Brunswick

Curtis Library -23 Pleasant St. - 4 to 6

100th Anniversary of the Maine branch of WILPF.

For more information - 725-7686

Sunday, October 4 - Rockland

Universalist Church - 345 Broadway

from 3 to 5

Hosted by the Midcoast Peace and Justice Group.

For more information - 691-0322

Monday, October 5 - Portland

USM - Talbot Hall - 6 to 8

Hosted by Maine Code Pink and USM Women and Gender Studies.

For more information - 934-1911

Kathy Kelly is a co-founder of Voices for Creative Non-violence and a recipient of the 2015 Peace Prize by the U.S. Peace Memorial Foundation. She will share experiences and insight gained by working for 20 years as a member of international peace teams in Sarajevo, Lebanon, the West Bank, Iraq and Afghanistan.

Co-sponsors of Kathy's venues in Maine are PeaceWorks, Global Network, Let Cuba Live, Maine Code Pink, Midcoast Peace and Justice Group, Maine Voices for Palestinian Rights, PAX Christi, Peace Action Maine, Peace and Justice Center of Eastern Maine, Physicians for Social Responsibility, Resources for Organizing and Social Change, United Nations Association Maine, Veterans for Peace and USM Women and Gender Studies.

These events are free and open to the public.

Contributions to support Kathy's work and travel expenses gratefully accepted.