Drone Warfare

Friday, July 13

Camden & Damariscotta

The Camden Public Library - 55 Main Street - Camden
2:30 to 4:00 PM

Midcoast Friends Meeting - 77 Belvedere Road - Damariscotta
7:00 to 9:00 PM

Medea Benjamin will speak about her new book Drone Warfare: Killing by Remote Control, a comprehensive look at how drones are being used to assassinate people around the world, the legal and moral implications, and how to build a movement to rein in the drones. Medea will also speak about how drones are coming to local police departments, and what that means for our privacy rights.

Drone Warfare explores the growing menace of robotic warfare, with an extensive analysis of who is producing the drones, where are they being used, who pilots these unmanned planes, who are the victims and what are the legal and moral implications.

Medea is a cofounder of both CODEPINK and the international human rights organization Global Exchange. She has been an advocate for social justice for more than 30 years. A former economist and nutritionist with the United Nations and World Health Organization, Benjamin is the author/editor of eight books.

These events are free and open to the public. For more information call 691-0322
